

BACKGROUND INFORMATION HOUSING ASSISTANT

Our Story

Thenue Housing Association Ltd is a Registered Social Landlord (RSL) and was formed in 1979. We have a stock base of 3,000 properties; we own 21 supported housing properties, have around 45 sharing owners and offer a factoring service to over 800 owner occupiers. Our housing stock is a mixture of new build houses and flats built between the late 1970s and the present day, Victorian sandstone tenements including a few listed buildings and 1930s 'interwar' flats. They are spread across several locations in Glasgow including Bridgeton, Calton, Cranhill, Castlemilk, Dalmarnock, Scotstoun, Baillieston and Blackhill.

All our staff are based in the registered office at 423 London Road. We have two Community Centres (Calton Heritage & Learning Centre and Netherholm Community Hall), which are managed through our subsidiary Thenue Communities. We employ over 75 members of staff and have Group turnover of over £20.3 million.

Thenue Housing operates a group structure:

- Thenue Housing Association Limited: owns the housing, is the parent body with charitable status. Regulated by the Scottish Housing Regulator.
- Thenue Housing Services Limited: a wholly owned subsidiary company through which non-charitable consultancy work other housing related activities are channelled.
- Thenue Trust: aims to attract charitable resources for the communities where we work.
- Thenue Communities: a charitable subsidiary company that manages our local community centres providing facilities for learning, training, play or social events.

BACKGROUND TO HOUSING ASSISTANT

COMMUNITY HOUSING SERVICES TEAM, HOUSING SERVICES DEPARTMENT

- 2.1 The post has responsibility for delivering an effective housing management function which is responsive to the needs of the Association's staff, Board and customers. You will be responsible to Senior Housing Officer.

Cycle to Work

Thenue participates in the Government's 'cycle to work' scheme to promote healthier journeys and to reduce environmental pollution.

THE RECRUITMENT PROCESS

Thank you for taking an interest in Thenue Housing. We hope that a combination of this introduction and the various attachments should help you to learn more about us, the post open for recruitment and encourage you to take the next step!

The information that you supply in your application form will enable the interview panel to decide whether to invite you to an interview. Whilst all sections may not be relevant to you personally, you should complete the form as fully and as accurately as possible to enable your application to be given full consideration. CVs will not be considered.

The enclosed person specification lists the minimum essential and desirable requirements for the post. When shortlisting for interview, the interview panel will not make any assumptions about the nature of your experience, skills and knowledge. It is therefore important that you provide detail of your skills and abilities within the application form.

You should consider the relevance of the information supplied in your application form, with that contained in the person specification and job description. Stating that you meet the criteria in the person specification alone does not demonstrate this to the interview panel. You should provide examples and evidence demonstrating your skills and experience.

If you are shortlisted for interview, the interview panel will wish to discuss the areas covered in the Person Specification in more detail. The questioning at interview will be designed to assess further how you meet the criteria in the person specification as well as your commitment to the values of Thenue.

When submitting your completed application form, please email to recruitment@thenuehousing.co.uk

Please include the job title in your subject line.

Identification, work eligibility, proof of qualifications, Disclosure Scotland and references will be requested only if you are offered the position. The offer will be subject to satisfactory checks. Please do not include copies of your qualifications or references with your initial application.

An application made by a relative of either a current Board member or anyone who has been a Board member within the last twelve months, cannot be considered and no offer of employment can be made.

Please note if you are not asked to interview, we are unable to provide feedback to those candidates that have not been invited to interview.

What are the legal bases for us processing your personal data?

Data protection law requires us to rely on one or more lawful grounds to process your personal information. We consider the following grounds to be relevant:

Performance of a contract

Where we are entering into a contract with you or performing our obligations under it, such as when you have a Tenancy or Factoring Agreement with us.

Performance of a task in the public interest

Where we provide housing services in relation to:

- (a) the prevention and alleviation of homelessness,
- (b) the management of housing accommodation where we have granted a Scottish secure tenancy

Legal obligation

Where necessary so that we can comply with a legal or regulatory obligation to which we are subject, for example where we are ordered by a court or regulatory authority like HMRC.

Vital interests

Where it is necessary to protect life or health (for example in the case of medical emergency suffered by an individual on our premises) or a safeguarding issue which requires us to share your information with the emergency services.

Consent

Where you have provided specific consent to us using your personal information in a certain way, such as to send you email, text and/or telephone marketing. This is also the basis for you giving permission for photography at our events.

Legitimate interests

Where it is reasonably necessary to achieve our or others' legitimate interests (as long as what the information is used for is fair and does not duly impact your rights).

We consider our legitimate interests to be for running Thenue Housing Association. For example to:

- provide our services;
- run our business, for example, processing financial transactions for payment of our suppliers and to invoice our contractors
- recruit staff
- protect our staff and customers and assist with the prevention and detection of crime
- monitor who we deal with to protect our Association against fraud, money laundering and other risks;
- enhance, modify, personalise or otherwise improve our services /communications for the benefit of our customers; and
- better understand how people interact with our website.
- use CCTV for the prevention and detection of crime, and for the safety and security of staff, tenants, and other persons, including visitors to Thenue HA premises

When we legitimately process your personal information in this way, we consider and balance any potential impact on you (both positive and negative), and your rights under data protection laws. We will not use your personal information where our interests are overridden by the impact on you, for example, where use would be excessively intrusive (unless, for instance, we are otherwise required or permitted to by law).

Processing special category personal data

Special categories of personal data means information about your racial or ethnic origin; political opinions; religious or philosophical beliefs; trade union membership; health; sex life or sexual orientation; criminal convictions, offences or alleged offences; genetic data; or biometric data for the purposes of uniquely identifying you.

When we process sensitive personal information, such as health information, we require an additional legal basis to do so under data protection laws, so will either do so on the basis of your explicit consent or another route available to us at law (for example, if we need to process it for employment, social security or social protection purposes, your vital interests, or, in some cases, if it is in the public interest for us to do so).

Who might my data be shared with, or seen by?

The information provided to us will be treated as confidential and will be processed only by our employees within the UK. We may disclose your personal data to any of our employees, officers, contractors, insurers, professional advisors, agents, debt collection agencies, suppliers or subcontractors, government agencies and regulators and healthcare providers insofar as reasonably necessary, and in accordance with data protection legislation.

We also disclose your personal data:

- With your consent;
- If we enter into a joint venture with or merged with another business entity, your information may be disclosed to our new business partners or owners
- If we instruct repair or maintenance works, we may disclose any relevant information required for the contractor to carry out the work
- If we are investigating a complaint, information may be disclosed to Police Scotland, Local Authority departments, Scottish Fire & Rescue Service and others involved in any complaint, whether investigating the complaint or otherwise
- If we are updating tenancy details, we may disclose any relevant information to third parties (such as utility companies and Local Authority)
- Your information may be shared with our solicitors and auditors and Data Protection advisers
- If we are investigating payments made or otherwise, your information may be disclosed to payment processors, solicitors, debt recovery agents, Local Authority and the Department of Work & Pensions
- If we are conducting a survey of our products and/ or service, your information may be disclosed to third parties assisting in the compilation and analysis of the survey results
- Your data (name and address) may be shared with organisations who deliver mail on our behalf
- Your data may be shared with the Department of Work and Pensions, Local Authorities or any other relevant department to facilitate the payment of any benefits or if required to assess your housing needs
- As requested by the local authority with regards to the processing of council tax or electoral registrar
- If requested by an emergency service
- If you are using an advice or advocacy service (such as a solicitor, advice agency or welfare benefits advisor) we will share relevant information with them where it is necessary to progress your case.
- When required to do so for legal or regulatory reasons, for example to the Health and Safety Executive or Scottish Public Services Ombudsman. Where we share your information with our photographer to allow photos to be taken for our newsletter and website

Unless required to do so by law, we will not otherwise share, sell or distribute any of the information provided to us without consent.

Transfers outside the UK and Europe

Customer information will only be stored within the UK and EEA (European Economic Area) except where international transfers are authorised by law.

Security

When you give us information, we take steps to make sure that personal information is kept secure and safe. All data is held in accordance with Thenue's Data Protection Policy, a copy of this is available on our website and from our office.

How long will we keep your information?

We review our data retention periods regularly and will only hold personal data for as long as is necessary for the relevant activity, or as required by law (we may be legally required to hold some types of information), or as set out in any relevant contract we have with you.

Data retention guidelines on the information we hold are available. We will generally keep your information for the minimum periods set out in the guidelines after which this will be destroyed if it is no longer required for the reasons it was obtained.

What are your rights?

You have the right at any time to request to exercise your data subjects' rights in relation to the following:

- The right to be informed – covered by this privacy notice
- The right of access – to request a copy of your personal information and to check that we are holding and using it in accordance with legal requirements.
- The right to rectification - correction of any incomplete or inaccurate personal information that we hold and use about you, there may be instances where it is not appropriate to rectify information, for example, if something was done incorrectly but identified and the correct cause of action taken, the record would show the full picture so would be accurate
- The right to be forgotten – to request deletion of your personal information where there is no good reason for us continuing to hold and use it, if there is a legal obligation to keep the information then this does not apply, for example, where there is a contractual obligation to keep the information
- You also have the right to ask us to do this where you object to us holding and using your personal information (details below).
- The right to restrict processing – to temporarily suspend the use of your personal information, for example, if you want us to check that it is correct or the reason for processing it, this is not an absolute right and only applies in certain circumstances, for example, where the processing is unlawful or we no longer need the data for the purpose of the processing.
- The right to data portability – to request the transfer of your personal information to another organisation, where you have provided the information to us electronically.
- The right to object to processing - You can also object to us holding and using your personal information where our legal basis is a legitimate interest (either our legitimate interests or those of a third party), including the right to object to direct marketing.
- Rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling

If you would like to exercise any of your rights above please contact us at DPO@thenuehousing.co.uk .

We will respond without delay and within one month of your request in writing.

You will not have to pay a fee to access your information (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request for information is clearly unfounded or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with the request in such circumstances.

You also have the right to complain to the Information Commissioner's Office in relation to our use of your information. The Information Commissioner's contact details are noted below: The Information

Commissioner's Office Wycliffe House, Water Lane, Wilmslow, Cheshire, SK9 5AF Telephone: 0303 123 1113 Website: <https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint/>

The accuracy of your information is important to us - please help us keep our records updated by informing us of any changes to your email address and other contact details.

Changes to this Privacy Notice

Thenue Housing Association reserves the right to update this privacy notice at any time and will provide you with a new notice when making any substantial updates. We may also notify you in other ways from time to time about the processing of your personal data.
