

BACKGROUND INFORMATION

CLERK OF WORKS

(ESTATES/ENVIRONMENTAL AND FACTORING)

Our Story

Thenue Housing Association Ltd is a Registered Social Landlord (RSL) and was formed in 1979. We have a stock base of 3,000 properties; we own 21 supported housing properties, have around 45 sharing owners and offer a factoring service to over 800 owner occupiers. Our housing stock is a mixture of new build houses and flats built between the late 1970s and the present day, Victorian sandstone tenements including a few listed buildings and 1930s 'interwar' flats. They are spread across several locations in Glasgow including Bridgeton, Calton, Cranhill, Castlemilk, Dalmarnock, Scotstoun, Baillieston and Blackhill.

All our staff are based in the registered office at 423 London Road. We have two Community Centres (Calton Heritage & Learning Centre and Netherholm Community Hall), which are managed through our subsidiary Thenue Communities. We employ over 75 members of staff and have Group turnover of over £20.3 million.

Thenue Housing operates a group structure:

- Thenue Housing Association Limited: owns the housing, is the parent body with charitable status. Regulated by the Scottish Housing Regulator.
- Thenue Housing Services Limited: a wholly owned subsidiary company through which non-charitable consultancy work other housing related activities are channelled.
- Thenue Trust: aims to attract charitable resources for the communities where we work.
- Thenue Communities: a charitable subsidiary company that manages our local community centres providing facilities for learning, training, play or social events.

Cycle to Work

Thenue participates in the Government's 'cycle to work' scheme to promote healthier journeys and to reduce environmental pollution.

THE RECRUITMENT PROCESS

Thank you for taking an interest in Thenue Housing. We hope that a combination of this introduction and the various attachments should help you to learn more about us, the post open for recruitment and encourage you to take the next step!

The information that you supply in your application form will enable the interview panel to decide whether to invite you to an interview. Whilst all sections may not be relevant to you personally, you should complete the form as fully and as accurately as possible to enable your application to be given full consideration. CVs will not be considered.

The enclosed person specification lists the minimum essential and desirable requirements for the post. When shortlisting for interview, the interview panel will not make any assumptions about the nature of your experience, skills and knowledge. It is therefore important that you provide detail of your skills and abilities within the application form.

You should consider the relevance of the information supplied in your application form, with that contained in the person specification and job description. Stating that you meet the criteria in the person specification alone does not demonstrate this to the interview panel. You should provide examples and evidence demonstrating your skills and experience.

If you are shortlisted for interview, the interview panel will wish to discuss the areas covered in the Person Specification in more detail. The questioning at interview will be designed to assess further how you meet the criteria in the person specification as well as your commitment to the values of Thenue.

When submitting your completed application form, please email to recruitment@thenuehousing.co.uk. Please include the job title in your subject line.

Identification, work eligibility, proof of qualifications, Disclosure Scotland and references will be requested only if you are offered the position. The offer will be subject to satisfactory checks. Please do not include copies of your qualifications or references with your initial application.

An application made by a relative of either a current Board member or anyone who has been a Board member within the last twelve months, cannot be considered and no offer of employment can be made.

Please note if you are not asked to interview we are unable to provide feedback to those candidates that have not been invited to interview.

We will collect this information in a variety of ways including directly from you, and from third parties as outlined below:

- Recruitment Agencies
- Former employers or other referees
- Occupational Health providers
- Banks
- Department of Work and Pensions
- Trade Unions
- Disclosure Scotland
- Professional bodies
- Training bodies
- Debt agencies
- Line managers and colleagues

Who do we share your information with?

We may disclose to and share information about you with third parties for the purposes set out in this notice, or for purposes approved by you, including the following:

- To process your salary payments;
- To allow your pension provider to process pensions information and handle your pension;
- To allow your electronic payslips to be produced and issued to you;
- If we enter into a joint venture with or are sold to, or merged with, another business entity, your information may be disclosed to our new business partners or owners.

We may share your data to the extent that we are required to do so by law for the below purposes:

- to complete a regulatory return in relation to the Management Committee
- to protect the rights, property and safety of us, our customers, users of our websites and other persons;
- in connection with any ongoing or prospective legal proceedings;
- If we are investigating a complaint, information may be disclosed to solicitors, independent investigators such as auditors, the Scottish Housing Regulator and other regulatory bodies involved in any complaint, whether investigating the complaint or otherwise;
- to the purchaser (or prospective purchaser) of any business or asset that we are (or are contemplating) selling

We may share your data with third parties, including third party service providers that process data on our behalf, in connection with payroll; the provision of employee benefits; the provision of occupational health services and IT services.

In relation to our third-party service providers, we have in place a written contract which only permits them to process your data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions. All their employees must be subject to a duty of confidentiality. The contract also requires third party service providers to take appropriate security measures in relation to your personal data which are in line with our policies. They are also not allowed to use your personal data for their own purposes.

What are the legal bases for us processing your personal data?

We will only process your personal data on one or more of the following legal bases:

- contract
- consent
- our legitimate interests (including CCTV and audio recordings)
- Where there is a recognised legitimate interest, as defined under the Data (Use and Access) Act 2025 and by the relevant Secretary of State
- vital interests
- the performance of a task carried out in the public interest and/or with official authority
- legal obligation

How do we secure your personal data?

We take the security of your data seriously. We have internal policies and controls in place to try to ensure that your data is not lost, accidentally destroyed, misused or disclosed, and is not accessed except by its employees in the performance of their duties.

In addition, we limit the access that individuals have to your personal data to those who have a business need to know.

Your information will only be stored within the UK and EEA (European Economic Area).

We have in place procedures to deal with any suspected data security breach and will notify you and the Information Commissioner's Office of a personal data breach when legally required to do so.

How long will we keep your personal data?

We review our data retention periods regularly and will only hold your personal data for as long as is necessary for the relevant activity, or as required by law, or as set out in any relevant contract we have with you.

Your Rights

You have several rights in relation to your personal data. These are listed below. A fee will not generally be charged for exercising any of these rights unless your requests are manifestly excessive.

- the right to be informed: covered by this privacy notice
- the right to access: to request a copy of your personal information and to check that we are holding and using it in accordance with legal requirements
- the right to rectification: correction of any incomplete or inaccurate personal information that we hold and use about you, there may be instances where it is not appropriate to rectify information, for example, if something was done incorrectly but identified and the correct cause of action taken, the record would show the full picture so would be accurate
- the right to object to processing: you can also object to us holding and using your personal information where our legal basis is a legitimate interest (either our legitimate interests or those of a third party), including the right to object to direct marketing
- rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling
- the right to be forgotten: to request deletion of your personal information where there is no good reason for us continuing to hold and use it if there is a legal obligation to keep the information then this does not apply, for example, where there is a contractual obligation to keep the information
- the right to data portability: to request the transfer of your personal information to another organisation, where you have provided the information to us electronically
- the rights to restrict processing: to temporarily suspend the use of your personal information, for example, if you want us to check that it is correct or the reason for processing it, this is not an absolute right and only applies in certain circumstances, for example, where the processing is unlawful or we no longer need the data for the purpose of the processing

If you would like to find out more about how we use your personal data or want to see a copy of information about you that we hold or wish to exercise any of your above rights, please contact the Data protection Co-ordinator.

You should note that not all rights under the UK GDPR and Data Protection Act 2018 are absolute and are subject to qualification.

Queries and Complaints

If you are not satisfied with our handling of your request or have any other data protection related issue, in the first instance, you have the right to contact us with your complaint so that we can investigate, any complaints should be marked 'GDPR Complaint' and should be sent to the DPC.

If you still remain unsatisfied after your complain has been processed by us, you can complain to the Information Commission. Contact details are available at <https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint/>

The accuracy of your information is important to us; please help us keep our records updated by informing us of any changes to your personal and contact details.

What if you do not provide personal data?

You have some obligations under your employment contract to provide us with information. In particular, you are required to report absences from work and may be required to provide information about disciplinary or other matters under the implied duty of good faith which you have as an employee. You may also have to provide us with data in order to exercise your statutory rights, such as in relation to statutory leave entitlements. Failing to provide the information to us may mean that you are unable to exercise these statutory rights.

Certain information, such as contact details, your right to work in the UK and payment details, have to be provided to enable us to enter a contract of employment with you. If you do not provide other information, this will hinder our ability to administer the rights and obligations arising as a result of the employment relationship efficiently.

Changes to this Privacy Notice

Thenue Housing Association reserves the right to update this privacy notice at any time and will provide you with a new notice when making any substantial updates. We may also notify you in other ways from time to time about the processing of your personal data.
